TO THE MEMBERS OF THE ACTION OF THE DEPARTMENT: At the conference of the two factions of the Democratic party recently elected to the Common Council and Board of Aldermon of the city of Richmond held on the night of RORER PARK, ROANOKE, VA.

Having accepted the office of Superintendent of this new enterprise, I such proceed at once to arrange its courses of study, and to select and secure the appointment of an eccessory teachers and officers. The courses of study, rules and regulations names of officers and teachers, terms, &c., will be published soon in pamphies form, and undice given of its first session's opening in October.

I find that the trustees have provided ample necommodations and most beautiful premises. Horer Park, embracing its series and covered with original forest-trees, has not covered with original forest-trees, has none an other place for health, recreation, and enjoyment. The hote is now filled with boarders—all opposed to its sale for school purposes. All that energy, faithful supervision, carnest attention to the wants and comforts of pupils can do, i pledge to those who favor me with their patronage. My first and highest aim along with therough instruction, will be to impress a bigh type of manhood and Christian character.
